Supervisor Yaroslavsky made the following statement:

“This year marks the 6th annual Los Angeles Transgender Pride celebration. This free weekend-long event will include entertainment, music, refreshments and free transgender-sensitive HIV/STD screening, as well as workshops and discussion groups led by well-known advocates on topics such as political activism, access to health care, substance abuse, career planning and youth issues.

“Members of the transgender population live and work in all areas of our County and make significant economic and social contributions to the vibrancy, creativity and prosperity of our region.

“I applaud the producers of Trans-Unity Pride, who include the Los Angeles Gay & Lesbian Center, FTM Alliance Los Angeles, Inc. and the Unique Woman’s Coalition, for their success in establishing and supporting this event.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Yaroslavsky, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisor Molina being absent), the Board proclaimed June 1 through 3, 2007 as “Transgender Pride Weekend” throughout Los Angeles County; and urged all residents to reflect with pride and gratitude on the contributions transgender people continue to make in the community.
